

W. Shelby Reaves Resume

Education: Duke University, Bachelor of Science, Civil Engineering, 1955

General Qualifications: Over fifty years in the construction industry with continued increasing responsibilities as a Senior Executive for Turner Construction Company and its subsidiaries and independent consultant since January 2001.

Work History:

2001 – Present

Independent Consultant, Winter Park, Florida

Continued assistance to Turner Construction Co. with the closeout of the Paul Brown Stadium Project & completion of the Summit Country Day School in Cincinnati, Ohio and advice during construction of the Vue condominium tower in Orlando, Florida; as well as advice on new prospects and long range planning initiatives. Active neutral construction arbitrator for the American Arbitration Association, mediator on local central Florida construction related issues, Owner's Representative on expansion of Winter Park, FL, Methodist Church and member of Dispute Review Boards in Florida for the concourse extension project at Orlando International Airport, the new Orlando Expressway Authority office building and the SR417 ORT & Lake Jesup Toll Plaza Conversion in 2009/ 2010..

1998 – 2000

Vice President, Cincinnati, Ohio

Project Director for the CM joint venture of Turner, Barton Malow and DAG for the $350 Million Paul Brown Football Stadium for the Cincinnati Bengals and Hamilton County, Ohio.

1997 – 1998

Vice President, Orlando, Florida

Responsible to assist Turner with new business development and preconstruction services on two airport projects in Florida; a Convention Center in Vancouver, British Columbia; an airport in Salt Lake City, Utah, and the complete design development for a proposed 1200 ft. tall Freedom Tower in Newport, Kentucky.

1995 – 1996

Vice President, Washington, DC

Operating out of the Washington office, responsible for new business development and construction operations for Turner start-up opportunities in South Africa. Set up an association with a South African construction group in pursuit of several prison complexes and a Johannesburg office building. Assisted Turner's Middle Atlantic region and Government group in pursuit of a military housing project in Colorado; government office buildings in North Carolina and Virginia and a naval aircraft testing facility in Maryland.

W. Shelby Reaves Resume

1994 –1995

Vice President, Operations Manager, Florida

Operating from the Orlando office, responsible for construction operations of ongoing Florida projects including the Disney Institute; Terminator 2 at Universal Studios; DeSoto Correctional Institution in Arcadia, Florida; FIU Library Expansion, Miami, FL.; University of Miami Fitness Center; and the Tequesta and Courts high-rise condos on Brickell Key in Miami.

1993 – 1994

Vice President, Manager for Turner Mega Projects Niche Market

Responsible to assist all Turner offices in business development and operational start-up of mega projects ($200 million and over) including an airport development at JFK in NYC; two prisons in California; Terminal Four at Heathrow Airport in London, UK; and a new University in Kuwait.

1990 - 1993

Vice President, Territory General Manager, Miami, FL.

Responsible for new business development, administration of territory office and operations responsibilities for such key projects as three Fisher Island luxury condo buildings; the design / build Federal Justice Center; and Cargo Buildings 2130 and 2134 at Miami international Airport, Dade County, FL.

1987 – 1990

Vice President, Territory General Manager, Orlando, FL.

Initially assigned as Operations Manager (until mid 1998) and then as Territory General Manager for the Orlando, FL. office. Responsible for territory new business and office administration and operations responsibilities for such key projects as Olympia & York's office building in Orlando; The Mayflower Retirement Community in Winter Park; the Caribbean Beach Resort at Disney World; Studio Facilities at Universal Studios; and the Florida Aquarium in Tampa.

1985 – 1987

Vice President, Chicago, Illinois

Executive-in-Charge for the $500 Million United Airlines Terminal for Tomorrow at O'Hare Airport in Chicago. Responsible for all related operations from design through construction completion.

1984 – 1985

Executive Vice President, Turner International (Turner's international subsidiary), New York, NY.

Responsible for management of the International Division's sales, estimating, engineering, cost and accounting departments; as well as operations responsibilities for projects in S.E. Asia and an engine test facility in Queretaro, Mexico. Pursued prospects in Islamabad, Pakistan; Beijing, China; Beni Suef, Egypt; Jakarta, Indonesia, and Mexico.

W. Shelby Reaves Resume

1978 – 1984

Vice President, Turner International, New York, N.Y.

Manager of project development and personnel departments as well as executive responsibilities for the Royal Terminal at King Khalid International Airport, Riyadh, Saudi Arabia.

1977 – 1978

Vice President, Turner International, Manager Middle East Operations, New York, N.Y.

Responsible for operational control of Dubai Sheraton Hotel, Dubai, U.A.E.; Aga Khan Hospital and Medical College, Karachi, Pakistan; and the City Center Hotel, Abu Dhabi, U.A.E.

1975 – 1977

Middle East Manager, Turner International Tehran, Iran.

Responsible for business development and local operations for preconstruction for the University sponsored by the Ministry of Science and Higher Education in Tehran, sales prospects in Tehran and Qazvin, Iran; preconstruction for the Aga Khan's Industrial Promotion Services hotels in Pakistan as well as the Aga Khan Hospital and Medical College in Karachi; sale and preconstruction for the Dubai Sheraton and the Abu Dhabi City Center Hotel; and pursuit of a textile manufacturing facility in Kandahar, Afghanistan.

1974 – 1975

Operations Manager, Turner (East Asia) Ltd, Turner's Far East subsidiary, Hong Kong

Responsible for construction operations at Citibank Tower and Caterpillar Facility in Hong Kong and the OCBC Tower in Singapore; and assisted with new business opportunities for an hospital development in Manila, the Philippines, Swire Properties multi-family housing complex in Hong Kong; the Hong Kong International School; and initial sales trips to Iran.

1968 – 1974

Project Manager, Mei Foo Investments (Mobil Oil, J.W. Galbreath, Turner Venture), Hong Kong

Project Engineer (until 1971) and the Project Manager (from 1971 – 1974) at Mei Foo Sun Chuen, a US $ 150 million (in 1970 $), 13 million s.f., 13,400 apartment condominium housing project (with related commercial and parking structures) consisting of 99 twenty story buildings on a 40 acre site at Lai Chi Kok, Kowloon, Hong Kong.

W. Shelby Reaves Resume

1966 – 1968

Project Engineer, New York, N.Y.

Office engineering responsibilities for the US $ 60 million (1966 $) Federal Office Building and Custom Court House at Foley Square in New York City.

1955 – 1966

Assistant Superintendent, Assistant Engineer and/or Cost Engineer on:

- Delaware Art Center, Wilmington, Delaware ('55)
- Baltimore Cathedral, Baltimore, Maryland ('55)
- RCA Television Tube Plant, Lancaster, Pennsylvania ('55)
- Connecticut General Life Insurance Building, Bloomfield, Connecticut ('55 -56)
- 15 Broad Street Renovation, NYC ('56)
- Bankers Trust Building, NYC ('56)
- First National Bank of Miami, Florida ('57-'59)
- Bethlehem Steel Research Building, Bethlehem, Pa. ('60)
- Pan Am Arrivals Building at JFK. N.Y. ('60)
- Fort Hamilton Military Base, Brooklyn, NY ('60-'61)
- American Standard Research, Piscataway, NJ ('62-'63)
- 860 U.N. Plaza Apartments and Office Tower, NYC ('64-'65)

Contact Information –

W. Shelby Reaves
The Reaves Group
1620 Mayflower Court, Apt A-210
Winter Park, FL 32792

Tel: 407-629-4243
Cell: 321-663-1850
sreaves@cfl.rr.com

References – Available on request.