

Marty R. Sanchez, P.E.
220 S. Gunlock Ave
Tampa, Florida 33609
(813) 872-7170
marty_sanchez@urscorp.com

Education Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering, University of South Florida, 1988
Dispute Review Board Member Orientation

Licensure Florida Board of Professional Engineers, 1992 Registration #45987

Experience URS Corporation Southern, February 2000 - Present
Resident Engineer

Currently serving as a Resident Engineer for the construction of a new interchange and the construction of a major interstate widening project in Pinellas County. Construction costs total $60 million.

Florida Department of Transportation, April 1996 – February 2000
Consultant CEI Resident Engineer

Construction Engineering and Inspection utilizing consultant personnel. Duties included preparation of scope of services for Consultant CEI contracts, consultant selection, fee negotiation, and consultant evaluation. Duties consisted of ensuring projects were constructed in accordance with Department specifications, negotiations for additional work, documenting negotiations, claim analysis and defense, arbitration presentations, public presentations, and critical path schedule management. Representative projects include major bridge construction, major urban reconstruction, toll plaza construction, and bascule bridge rehabilitation and construction. Construction project costs ranged from $8 million to $35 million each.

Florida Department of Transportation, April 1992 – April 1996
Tampa Construction Assistant Resident Engineer

Construction Engineering and Inspection utilizing approximately 28 in-house inspection personnel. Duties included hiring and developing inspection personnel, ensuring projects were constructed in accordance with Department specifications, negotiations for additional work, documenting negotiations, claim analysis and defense, arbitration presentations, and critical path schedule management. Representative projects include road resurfacing, bascule bridge rehabilitation, and urban roadway reconstruction. Construction costs ranged from $300k to $10 million each.

Florida Department of Transportation, June 1988 – April 1992
Professional Engineer Intern

The Department's intern program is intended to provide diverse work experience to recent graduates. Various assignments within the Department include roadway and bridge design, drainage design, permitting, and construction management.