All populations are taken from the United States Census Bureau, in 2010, the population of Flagler County was 89,804. There are 105 square miles in the county.