Complimentary Workshop Transit Surveys for Improved Planning Applications

The Public Transit Office (PTO) of the Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) is organizing a workshop to provide guidance and material for managing and organizing state-of-the-practice transit surveys. This workshop is designed as a beginning- to intermediate-level course for professionals of transit agencies at local, state and regional levels who administer transit surveys. Transit professionals from both the public and private sector are welcome. This workshop is offered at no cost to attendees.

The workshop discusses the latest practices with regards to the following:

- Effective methods for conducting transit surveys.
- Practical, proven techniques to increase survey cost-effectiveness.
- Methods for interpreting, displaying and communicating transit survey analysis results to decision-makers.
