

The Department's Construction Safety Awareness course must be completed by all FDOT personnel involved in construction activities on construction sites. This course is only for FDOT employees and is available within FDOT's Learning Curve training system.

Consultants and Contractors should take the appropriate OSHA course as required by their employer.

Please contact Jason Russell at 850-414-4010 if you have any questions.